

HQ Updates

March 2018

2018 is off to a running start and we have all your headlines for DiveGUE.tv, Quest, and everything new at GUE HQ. Scroll through for the basics, or click through for more information on the topics that interest you. Miss our previous installments? Check out all of the past issues of our quarterly HQ Updates to make sure you have all the latest here.

Annual Reports Now Available

We are excited to release the 2017 GUE and Project Baseline Annual Reports and the 2017 Project Reports! Thank you to all of the teams who contributed to the Project Reports and all of those who continue to devote their time and resources to exploration and conservation around the world.

Thanks to Halcyon Manufacturing's generous sponsorship, a printed copy of the Project Reports was mailed to Silver, Gold, Scholar, and Platinum members with their recent issue of Quest.

Visit <https://bit.ly/2pyJcmF> to download and read all three reports.

GUE Conference 2019

The 2019 GUE Conference is on the calendar! We hope to see you here in Florida next November 9-10 for a great time of presentations, workshops, socials, and more!
